

MICROAGGRESSIONS AND MICROINTERVENTIONS :

A PRESENTATION, WORKSHOP, & DIALOGUE WITH DR. DERALD WING SUE

June 17, 2021 | 10 AM - 12 PM EST

Dr. Derald Wing Sue will be addressing issues related to microaggressions and micro-interventions that respond to the U.S. socio-cultural and political climate. His knowledge and expertise about microaggression theory have been widely acknowledged and integrated into the U.S. mainstream public discourse as well as within the academy. During this event, Dr. Sue will share how his experiences, research, and scholarship can be disseminated and utilized at a place like Virginia Tech.

Derald Wing Sue is a Professor of Psychology and Education in the Department of Counseling and Clinical Psychology at Teachers College, Columbia University. He was the co-founder of the National Multicultural Conference and Summit, co-founder and first President of the Asian American Psychological Association, past presidents of the Society for the Psychological Study of Culture, Ethnicity, and Race, and the Society of Counseling Psychology. Derald has served as Editor or Associate Editor of many professional journals, including the American Psychologist, Asian American Journal of Psychology, and the Personnel and Guidance Journal.
