Federal and state regulations require students to report any scholarship, grant, or other assistance received from sources other than VTCSOM. Failure to do so may result in cancellation of any and all aid.

Students should report scholarships as follows:

- Irrespective of whether the funds have been received.
- Irrespective of whether the funds go directly to the school or to the student.
- Renewals from the previous year. (This does not include VTCSOM institutional support.)
- A copy of an official, signed letter from the awarding organization should be attached to this form.

Please use the official name of the scholarship and the awarding organization. A separate form should be completed for each scholarship or award. Request additional forms at vtcsomfinaid@vt.edu.
