While each student will find the places most conducive for their studying, students are encouraged to take advantage of the VTC facilities for their studying needs. Within the School of Medicine, PBL rooms, the Student Affairs Center (SAC), the Student Commons, the Student Café, and the library are routinely available for students to study.